STAT

Mr. Allen Dulles has asked me to reply to your letter of October 6, 1951, concerning employment with this Agency.

A careful check has been made of the available positions, but no suitable vacancy exists at the present time for an individual with your qualifications. However, your application is being retained in our active files and should a vacancy occur wherein your services can be utilized we shall contact you.

I regret that I cannot give you a more favorable reply at this time.

Sincerely,
